

Self Portrait Storyboard

1920 x 1080p

1. 5seconds
Opening shot of me beginning to spin around in a chair in the darkness, use time displacement to warp the video so my body is twisting around.

2. 10s
Pulsing RGB light begins to slowly illuminate me

3. 5s
We begin to see bits of graffiti drawing and undrawing themselves themselves in the background

4. 5s
a better drawn "throwup" graffiti piece daws itself across me, masked so that my body twists around it.

5. 2s
flashing blue and red signals the end of the graffiti section

6. 2s
fade to grey for a boring 2s

7. 5s
blocky sans serif type scrolls in the background, overlapping with chromatic aberration, regain my size

8. 5s
Mask the text 'DK' in the same font, twisting around my body

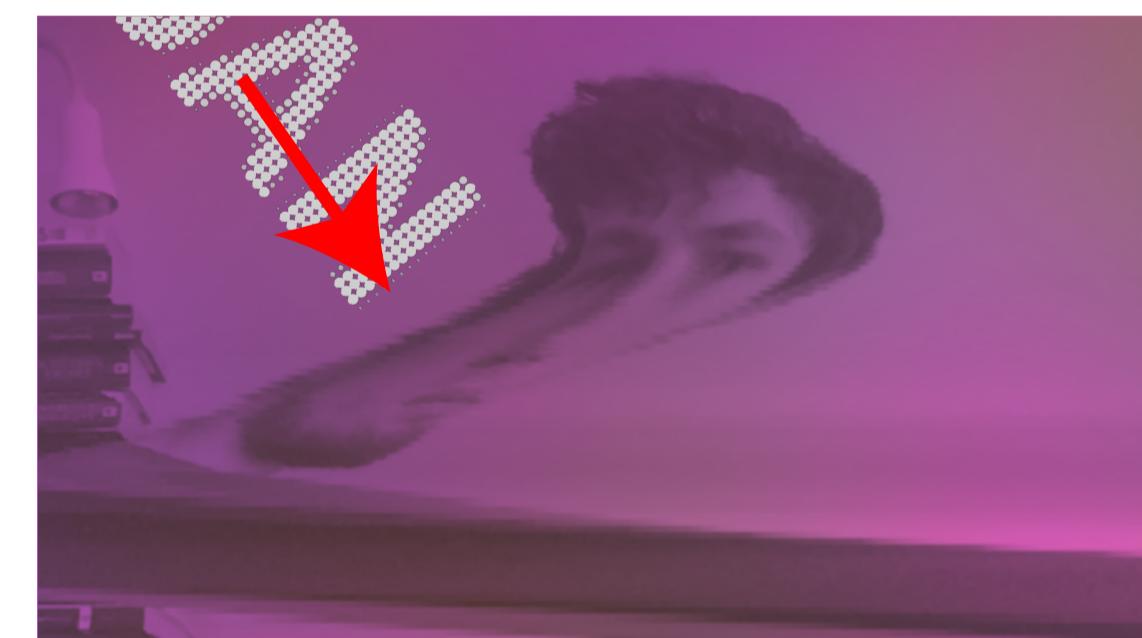

9. 1s
Main text disappears behind me as the background text scrolls off screen

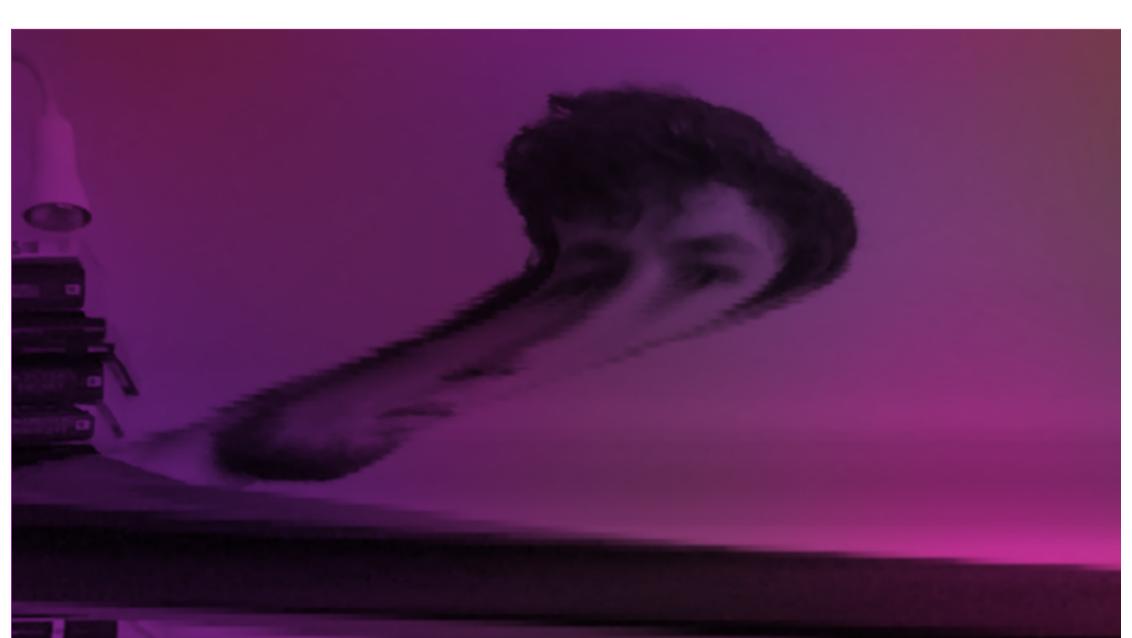

10. 2s
Pastel coloured noise field takes over the lighting

11. 5s
various generative type example appear in the background in pastel colour

12. 5s
The text 'Dan' grows in a multicoloured reaction diffusion pattern partly obscured as I continue to twist.

13. 5s
stop spinning in the chair and face the camera as the lighting fades to a more natural tone.
